

NANCY WYNNE IS INTERESTED IN PLANS OF EMERGENCY AID

Three of the Recently Formed Aid Societies Will Have Headquarters in the Famous Harrison House on Rittenhouse Square

IT IS interesting to learn that on August 1 the Emergency Aid Society, Preparedness League and the Citizen Soldiers' Aid will move from their various headquarters to the Harrison House, which has been offered by Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury for a general meeting place.

It is considered that it will be wiser to have these three works, which are so interwoven, under the same roof, so that when it is necessary for them to have co-operation there need be less red tape and quicker service will be available.

Certainly Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury have been marvelously devoted to their fellow beings since the needs of suffering humanity have been so urgent, both abroad and at home.

When they were first married they did so much entertaining those who did not know the former Mrs. Cromwell were inclined to think that she loved that kind of thing, but she was only in the city a short time when all began to realize that there was a splendid, strong woman ready to help her fellow creatures with the vast amount of this world's goods which had been given into her care.

She has taken the lead in almost every good work which has started in this city since she came here, and has been an example and inspiration to the many women associated with her.

Then, think, too, of the other splendid women who give not only of their money and good will, but of their valuable time. Surely Mrs. Willis Martin is an example of which this city may well be proud.

They tell me that she presides over the Labor Bureau in person every day from 9 until 5 o'clock, just taking one hour off for lunch like all the other women who work. Such self-sacrifice cannot help but bring a blessing in itself on these devoted women.

Dr. Richard Hart, who is head of the Red Cross, is also to be head of the three aid societies.

Speaking of the Emergency Aid, have you heard that Mr. Tom Robins has written a book on the subject of that organization? And it seems it is considered the best of its kind, because it has given work to the needy rather than made them objects of charity.

The Emergency Aid is now a State organization, and has the reputation of being the only aid that has been worked successfully in every way in any country.

The cool, shady porches at Manheim were filled on Tuesday, "Ladies Day," with a large number of members and their friends, for notwithstanding the intense heat, the attractions at that little club grow greater and greater.

OFFICERS OF ATLANTIC FLEET MAKE JAMESTOWN COLONY GAY

Midshipmen on Ships Anchored in Harbor Are Much Entertained—Many Novelties in Costumes Seen in Atlantic City—News From Other Shore Resorts

JAMESTOWN, R. I., July 13. A LARGE portion of the Atlantic fleet came to rest in the harbor on Tuesday, 16 ships in all, and as a result the town is gay with color. The naval officers and their wives and daughters seem to dominate the colony, and everywhere neat white uniforms and gold braid are seen, intermingled with the multi-colored stripes of the summer girls. Of course, the midshipmen, just "feeling their oats" after graduating from Annapolis, are being lionized by the pretty debutantes and debutantes.

Among the Philadelphians registered at the Bay View Hotel this week are Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Tige and their daughter, Miss Florence Tige; Mrs. A. T. Getze, Mrs. Christian C. Feltner, Miss Mary S. Feltner, Mrs. Anne Hampton Todd, Mrs. Ephraim Brice and Miss Mabel Brice; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Colton, Jr., Mrs. E. O. Shakespeare and her son, Mr. E. O. Shakespeare, Jr.; Mrs. T. J. Curtis, Mrs. Charles Francis Hochman, Miss Esther Jean Hochman, Mrs. Edward Bowman Leif, Miss Frances T. Leif, Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. West Randall and Miss Marlon Comly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gross, of London and Philadelphia, entertained at dinner Monday night at the Bay View Hotel, their guests including Dr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton and their daughter, Miss Anne Ashton; Mrs. Ephraim Brice and Miss Mabel Brice.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 13. THE "ankle-deep bathing girls" who insist upon their surf robe being up to the knees in style, even to the wearing of hosiery, has chosen a novel scarf of rubber as an adornment to her aqueous attire. The scarf, which is about a yard and a half long, is built of strips of various colored rubber to stimulate Roman ribbon. Hats of colored rubber also are worn. Many of them are adorned with rubber ribbon streamers, which fly coquetishly in the breeze.

Sleeveless jackets of black velvet were a novelty seen on the walk this week. They were quite a contrast from the many colored coats that have been so conspicuous this season. It is quite noticeable that many smart matrons and maids are eschewing multi-colored costumes for gowns of one tone, gray and dark blue being in high favor.

The Rev. Perry S. Allen and Mrs. Allen, Miss Agnes Allen and Miss Virginia Allen, who are at Bedford Springs, have taken a house in Ventnor for the month of August.

Mrs. Louis Rodman Page, Jr., whose husband is at the front, will spend the weekend with her mother in Chelsea.

OCEAN CITY, N. J., July 13. ELABORATE preparations are being made for the children's Carnival at the Ocean City Yacht Club, the first of the season, tomorrow evening. These carnivals have been a feature of the social events at the yacht club the past seasons, and are attended by the children of the members and their friends, as well as the children of residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Birchall Hammer, of Germantown, have returned home after spending a fortnight here. Mrs. Hammer, who is a recent bride, was Miss Olive May Wilson, famed throughout the country as the Santa Claus Girl.

The subscription card party at the Yacht Club yesterday afternoon drew a large attendance. The club's Entertainment Committee has arranged with Mr. Walter D. Bonaill, chairman of the House Committee, for music for dancing every Saturday afternoon, from 3 until 5 o'clock.
